AMUSEMENT NOTES.

In "Lady Windermere's Fan," which will be the Academy of Music to-night, Oscar Wilde has given us the brightest social comedy the stage has known in years. It is a play of words, an epigram matching tournament where the notes rain so thick and fast that it is impossible to keep count of them. "Lady Windermere's Fan" contains more deliberate wit and finished epigram than any play has contained since the days of Sheridan's "School for Scandal."

CRUST OF SOCIETY.

Two old Scranton favorites will be seen at the Academy on Thursday evening in "The Crust of Society," Mr. Arthur Lewis and Miss Z. M. Tibbitts. The Philadelphia North American says: "Throughout Miss Tibbitts displayed ease, and in the scene in which the lover discovers the truth, she was particularly spirited."

CLEVELAND'S MINSTRELS.

The minstrel entertainment this provided by W. S. Cleveland is invariably celebrated for several things. First of all and above all the programme is a clean one, and besides that is always full of novelty and action, and the leading minstrel features are supplemented by the best of the market in the way of sensational and startling specialties. They will appear at the Academy on Saturday next.

BONTA GLASS MACHINE TEST.

It will be made at Wilmington in presence of many Scrantonians. An important test of the Bonta Glass machine will be made at Wilmington, Del., tomorrow and will be watched with a great deal of interest by the Scrantonians who are stockholders in the company.

A special train will leave for Wilmington tomorrow morning at 5 o'clock, and will arrive about noon. The return trip will be made as soon as the test is finished.

Among those who will go to Wilmington are: Victor Koch, Conrad Schroeder, George Winans, Alex. Dunn, Jr., Henry Howell, William McChave, Jr., Frank Ferguson, Charles Weichel, T. C. Mevin, A. Park, C. Stockhouse and others.

JUMPED FROM THE WINDOW.

Police Visit a Disorderly House and Capture Two Prisoners. Anthony Litaris and Nellie Connors, two police court frequenters, were arrested yesterday, charged with disorderly conduct.

The officers stated that when they entered the house the Connors woman was entertaining Andrew Orlum, another well known character, and that Litaris was down stairs. Orlum is the man who was badly cut up with a saw by Litaris about a month ago. Orlum made his escape by jumping from a second story window.

The prisoners were each fined $5 or twenty days in the county jail.

THIRD CARNIVAL SESSION.

Members and Friends of the Liederkranz. Will Enjoy Themselves Tonight. The Scranton Liederkranz will hold its third annual carnival session at Music hall this evening.

The entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock and for several hours thereafter the members of the Liederkranz and their friends will have a most delightfully amusing time. Dancing will follow the entertainment.

ORDER OF TONTI OFFICERS.

Suburban Lodge, No. 163, Will Hold a Public Installation. Suburban lodge, No. 163, Order of Officers in Fanner & Chappell's hall, Providence, tomorrow evening.

An entertainment will be a feature of the exercises, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Several of the leading officers of the Order of Tonti are expected to be present and participate.

The Mystery Explained. "A Study in Scarlet," that you've talked so long, will be explained in full tomorrow.

NEWS FROM WEST SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

THE ARCHDEACONRY OF SCRANTON

The Winter Session to Be Held at St. David's Church, Commencing Today—Concert for the Benefit of Luther Lewis—John Evans Arrested for Abusing His Wife—Interesting News Briefs.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

The winter session of the archdeaconry of Scranton, will be held on the 15th, 16th and 17th inst., with St. David's Episcopal church of the West Side. The following is a synopsis of the programme for today at 7:30 p. m.

"The Church in America, Its Relation to the Church in England and Its Mission in This Country," by Rev. Edward H. Eikel, of West Pittston, and Rev. E. J. Baley, of Carbondale.

Rev. Bishop Rulison of the Central Pennsylvania diocese will be present to preside. Among the more important questions that will come before the body will be the election of a new archdeacon in the place of the Rev. Archdeacon Hall, who has resigned the Honored parish to accept a call at Wilmington, Del. Rev. Mr. Hall will leave Honored early next month.

A Benefit Concert.

The final arrangements for the benefit concert and drawing in behalf of Luther Lewis, of Lynon street, have been completed, and the event will take place at Meers' hall on Wednesday evening. The programme prepared will be an excellent one, and some of the best musical talent of the city will participate. The cause is a very just one. Mr. Lewis was injured in the mines a number of years ago, and has from time to time spent a good deal of money for the purpose of trying to better his condition but to no avail, and as a last resort, he intends undergoing an operation at an Albany medical institution which he hopes will benefit him to some extent. The following persons have the affair in charge, and there is not the least doubt but that the concert will be a grand success: Joseph Oliver, chairman; John J. Williams, ticket seller; David R. Hughes and Thomas J. Evans, ticket receivers; David W. Davies, Edwin Peters, John Reynolds and David J. Lewis, ushers.

Abusing His Wife.

John Evans, of Evans court, was arrested on Saturday by Officer Goerlitz on complaint of his wife. While under the influence of intoxicants, Evans becomes very abusive. On Saturday he was worse than usual, and his wife sent for an officer. When the officer appeared, Evans was threatening to throw his wife out of the house. He was given a hearing before Alderman Oram, of the Fourth ward, and held in $300 bail to keep the peace.

Jailed for Making Threats.

Mrs. Armon, a resident of Tenth street, was before Alderman Blair on Saturday morning for making threats against her neighbors. She was committed to the county jail in default of $300 bail to keep the peace.

Fell on the Ice.

Mrs. Emma J. Reese, of South Garfield avenue, sustained a serious injury by slipping on the ice and falling to the pavement Saturday.

Short News Notes.

St. Leo's Battalion attended holy communion at St. Patrick's church yesterday morning in a body. Services of special interest were held yesterday at the Plymouth Congregational church. During the day large contributions were made toward liquidating the church debt of $3,000. The morning and evening sermons were delivered by Rev. William Kincaid, of New York city, secretary of the Home Missionary society. There was also special singing.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. David Meves, of North Main avenue, occurred on Saturday afternoon. Services were conducted at the home.

Miss Ruth Jarvis, of Lafayette street, is the guest of friends in New York and Newark, N. J.

Rev. D. C. Phillips, of Hyde Park avenue, occupied the pulpit of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church in Olyphant yesterday.

Mrs. Joseph Sumnerhill, of North Sumner avenue, is ill with grip.

John N. Jones, of South Garfield avenue, has been confined to her room for several weeks by illness.

Rev. W. Skellenger delivered an excellent sermon in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evening. The subject was "Sunshine and Shadow."

District Deputy Grand Regent Lauer will install the officers of Lackawanna council, Royal Arcanum, on Wednesday evening at their hall on South Main avenue.

Richard Seymour and daughter, Maggie, of West Virginia, are the guests of William C. Davies, of South Garfield avenue.

Matthew Gross, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting at the home of Daniel Mohr, on North Sumner avenue.

TOMORROW'S BASE BALL MEETING.

Representatives of All State League Cities Will Be Here.

The meeting of the Pennsylvania State Base Ball league, which will be held in this city tomorrow, will be attended by representatives from all the cities of the league. Secretary Diddlebock will arrive here today and will establish headquarters at the Forest House, where the meeting will be held. A number of very important matters will come before the meeting. Prominent among the subjects to be discussed will be the matter of securing protection under the national agreement. The salary limit question will also be acted upon, and it is possible that a schedule will be made up.

CENTRAL REPUBLICAN CLUB.

The Meeting Tonight Will Discuss Increasing the Membership. There will be a business meeting of the Central Republican club this evening at the new club rooms in the Price building on Washington avenue.

This will be an important meeting. Action will be taken on increasing the membership and the secretary and treasurer will submit their annual report.

Readleston & Womersley and Ballantine's are the best. E. J. Watson, agent, at Lackawanna avenue.

SOPER'S WEARY VIGIL

Kept Tipstaff Jacob Ritter Company at the Court House Saturday Night.

AN OBJECTION WAS ENTERED

Mr. Soper Overruled It and Remained at His Post in Spite of Objections. Mr. Ritter Says He Will Lay the Whole Matter Before the Court This Morning—He Feels Aggrieved at the Attorney's Remarks.

There may be interesting developments in court to-day when the jury meets on the case of Mrs. May Rose against ex-Judge Handley, hands in its verdict, as Jacob Ritter, the veteran tipstaff, says he will ask the court to take cognizance of what he believes to have been very unbecoming conduct on the part of Attorney C. H. Soper, of counsel for Mrs. Rose.

On Saturday morning Mr. Armerman concluded his argument to the jury on the part of ex-Judge Handley, and was followed by Mr. Soper, who argued in Mrs. Rose's behalf with much vigor and eloquence. Judge Edwards delivered his charge and late in the afternoon the jury retired, with the injunction from the judge to seal up its verdict if it agreed after court adjourned.

About 5 o'clock Attorney Soper visited the upper corridor of the court house into which opened the jury room where the jurors were deliberating. There were about a dozen persons in the corridor at the time and Mr. Soper took down their names for future use, believing they had some sinister motive in hanging about the neighborhood of the jury room.

MR. SOPER'S LONG VISIT.

He departed soon after, but later returned with several friends and went on watch outside of the jury room in the corridor. After a time Tipstaff Ritter, who was posted outside of the room in charge of the jury, objected to the presence of Mr. Soper and his friends. He said that it was no place for them and that they should depart. Mr. Soper refused. He told Mr. Ritter that he was not going to leave until the jury retired, and from his further remarks the venerable tipstaff inferred that Mr. Soper believed he would try to influence the jury in making up its verdict.

That aroused Mr. Ritter's ire and he again directed that Mr. Soper depart. Upon his refusal to do so Mr. Ritter endeavored to force compliance with his request but was unsuccessful. The jury argued the case until 3 o'clock Sunday morning and then retired to bed. Soon after Mr. Soper and his friends withdrew.

After they were outside of the building Mr. Ritter gave orders that they be not admitted again. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Soper appeared at the court house again but Janitor Stone positively refused to allow him to enter.

THE JURY AGREES.

Yesterday morning the jury again attacked the problem before them with a vim and at 11:30 succeeded in harmonizing their differences and will bring the sealed verdict into court this morning.

Tipstaff Ritter declared yesterday that he would lay the whole history of Saturday night's proceedings before the court this morning. He was highly indignant at the imputation that he would act in a dishonorable manner.

THE UNANSWERABLE QUESTION.

Sermon Delivered by Rev. Ralph Gilliam at Dunmore Presbyterian Church. A strong sermon on "The Unanswerable Question of the Day," was preached by Rev. Ralph Gilliam at the Dunmore Presbyterian church last night. Mr. Gilliam was listened to by a large audience, both the main auditorium and lecture room being filled. A choir of fifty children who occupied the gallery, sang several selections.

Mr. Gilliam discussed his subject in an impressive manner and his eloquence held the undivided attention of the large congregation to the end. He said that no man is able to say that he cannot answer the question of "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?"

Should I ask Jesus for an answer to this question he would shake his head and say there is no answer. If man will believe on his Lord, he knows all there is to know on this question. Has any man ever been able to do what this salvation has done on this earth? This salvation was purchased with blood, and it should be a wonderful thing on this account.

If men would put into their religion the common sense they put in their every day life, there would not be any man unsaved, as their salvation is free. Do you want that salvation? There is nothing that can compare with the peace that belief in the Lord Jesus Christ gives. There is no peace outside of this one which is offered. It is the only salvation. There is no other way to be saved than the one spoken of in the Bible.

It was one of the most impressive sermons of the week and the speaker's final appeal was so earnest and eloquent that the audience was perceptibly moved.

Services will be held this evening at 7:30, but there will be no meeting this afternoon.

LYNCHED NEGROES WORTH $2.

Father's $5,000 Suit Reaches a Somewhat Lame Conclusion. SALINA, Kan., Jan. 14.—Three men when lynched, are worth $2 each, according to the verdict of a local jury. Henry Adams sued the city for $5,000 damages for the loss of his son, who was hanged by a mob in April. He claimed that the death of his son represented a pecuniary loss of that amount.

The jury decided that there had been no actual damage sustained by the plaintiff, but allowed $2 as "nominal" damages.

SHE SWALLOWED A MOUSE.

Woman Slept with Her Mouth Open and It Stopped In. WARREN, Ind., Jan. 14.—Mrs. John L. Levingstone, residing near Angleton on the county line, threw off her stomach a full grown mouse last evening. She had not been feeling well. She took an emetic and the mouse made its appearance.

How the mouse gained access to the woman's stomach is a mystery. She thinks that while she was asleep the little animal ran down her throat.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Cars Will Run Through to Greenwood This Week.

FIVE CENTS TO BRECK STREET

An Additional Five Cents to the Terminus—Work on the Remodeled Polish Church Progressing Rapidly—Charles C. Neuls Seriously Injured—News Notes and Personals of Interest to Tribune Readers.

The last crossing on the Minooka extension of the street railway system was put in yesterday and some time this week cars will be running from Scranton to Greenwood. All that remains to be done is to clear the track from the mud that has accumulated along the rails, and this will be accomplished as speedily as possible.

Two cars will be put on to make the run to Greenwood and return, the intention being to make trips every half hour, and the terminus as at present observed, in so far as the paying of fare is concerned will remain the same, the dividing line being Breck street.

From the Scranton House to Breck street will be five cents, and from Breck street to Greenwood will be an additional five cents. The rate being fixed by the terms of the lease between the Scranton Traction company and the Pittston and Scranton Traction company. Speaking on this subject to a TRIBUNE reporter on Saturday, General Manager Archer said: "The old South Side line is a trifle more than two miles in length, while the extension covers about the same distance. While some people might argue that we should carry passengers to the city line for the reason that it would not prove profitable for the simple reason that the people of Minooka, instead of getting on at their homes, would instead, walk to the city line, and the object for which the line is intended would not be subserved."

Work Progressing Rapidly.

Work on the remodeled Polish church is being pushed with rapidly, and by the time that dedication day arrives its entire aspect will be so changed that it will hardly be able to imagine it was ever old. The fences, the grape arbors, flower boxes and shrubbery will all be removed, the intention being to level the yard. Some of stained glass windows are in place and this afternoon the contract for the high altar will be let. Painter F. J. Johnson has made a gratification offer to paint the altar, applying four coats of paint, beside the necessary gilding. The steam heating plant will be in place this week, and the work of tearing down the old partition and plastering will begin at once.

Injured While at Work.

Charles C. Neuls was injured on Saturday and he will be disabled for some days. While unloading lumber his little finger was caught between two timbers and lacerated in a terrible manner. The doctors are undecided yet whether or not to amputate the injured member.

News Notes and Personals.

John Kemper, the steel worker, who has been in Worcester, Mass., and other manufacturing centres for several years, is visiting his brothers on Cedar avenue.

Henry J. Spruks, of the firm of Spruks Bros., went to Honoredale on Saturday. When he picks up THE TRIBUNE this morning he will be informed that he became a papa while he was absent from home. Mother and daughter are doing nicely.

The frame house owned by Thomas H. Kelly, located at Prospect avenue, near Alder street, was entirely destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. Only $1,000 insurance was carried.

Work on the axle works' extension will begin tomorrow morning. It will be fifty feet square and to cost $2,000. Spruks Brothers will be the contractors.

Oscar E. Stauch is spoken of as the Republican candidate for common council in the Nineteenth ward.

COURT HOUSE NOTES.

The second week of common pleas court will begin this morning. Fifteen of the thirty cases on the list are actions in assumpsit or appeals. There are also several eplevin cases and suits arising from municipal liens. These cases will not consume much time and the greater part of those on the list will probably be finally disposed of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andra Sulv have brought suit, through ex-Judge W. H. Stanton, against Barbara Petinak to recover $2,000 for defamation of character.

Lackawanna county has probably more ex-judges in active practice at the bar than any county in the state. There are ex-judges Alfred Hand, ex-Judge W. H. Jessup, ex-Judge H. M. Seely, ex-Judge H. A. Knapp, ex-Judge P. P. Smith, ex-Judge W. H. Stanton, and ex-Judge Ward. Ex-Judge Handley no longer devotes himself to the practice of law.

A two weeks term of quarter sessions and over and terminer will begin one week from today. The trial list for the term will be prepared today by District Attorney Kelly.

Of the thirty cases set down for trial in common pleas court last week twelve were passed upon by a jury. Several were referred to attorneys under the act of 1868 for consideration and others were reported as pending settlement.

On Saturday argument was heard by Judges Archbald and Foster with regard to the legality of annexing a portion of Lackawanna township to the city, the constitutionality of the act of 1889 by the provisions of which the annexation proceedings were governed. City Solicitor Torrey and Major Everett Warren made the arguments in favor of annexation, and Attorney I. H. Burns and Senator M. E. McDonald, against. Decision was reserved.

The Leader.

THE TRIBUNE Encyclopedia Britannica covers every department of knowledge known to mankind.

THE TRIBUNE Encyclopedia Britannica is the highest authority on every subject, being the result of the labors of more than 1,200 scholars, each one a master specialist in his class and a recognized authority on the subject of which he treats.

It has been said of the Encyclopedia Britannica that "If all other books should be destroyed, the Bible excepted, the world would have lost but little of its information."

The president of Yale college has said, "he will defy anyone to buy 3,000 volumes which will give him as good a working library as is furnished in the Encyclopedia Britannica."

Nowadays everybody is expected to have an Encyclopedia. If you act at once you can get the best in print for a song and save your head.

If you would become of the fortunate you should act at once. Only 10 cents a day, and it means success in life. Call at THE TRIBUNE, E. B. department, 437 Spruce street, and see for yourself what a library is now within your reach.

Important to Business Men.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully. We trust our LIVE BUSINESS MEN will give it their hearty support.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.
